

Itty Bitty Witty Knitties Greeting Cards Sentiments

Quilting Cards

1Q: A stitch in time would have confused Einstein.

2Q: Do you think these dark colors are slimmingor does this card still look fat?

3Q: Anything worth doingis worth over-doing.

4Q: I want to give you a little something for your birthday This is the smallest one I could find.

5Q: Great things come in small packages Small things come in small envelopes.

7Q: There is a fine line between hobby and mental illness (Dave Barry) I walk the line. (Johnny Cash)

19Q: 3:00 is always too late or too early to do something (Sartre) My guess is that Sartre was not a quilter.

20Q: In Seattle you haven't had enough coffeeUntil you can thread a sewing machine while it's running. (Bezos)

21Q: Quilting is hard Then you die.

22Q: If quilting is not your cup of tea Try adding a couple shots of Crown Royal.

23Q: A queen-size quilt is 83"x92"-3435 of these little jobbers What do you suppose are the odds of finishing the top before Jesus comes back?

24Q: The 9 patch is just as therapeutic as the 12-step..... And you don't have to quit drinking.

39Q: More fabric is the answer Who gives a rip about the question?

40Q: I have been trying to get all my ducks in a row..... This is all that would fit. (Ducks buttons on swatches)

41Q: Will quilt for sexWould quilt a lot more if you'd just leave me alone.

42Q: Do you ever feel you own entirely too much fabric? Me neither.

43Q: Would you be the designated quilter this week? You know-the one that stays sober enough to fix everyone else's mistake.

44Q: Quilting is just one of my guilty pleasures Don't ask.

45Q: I got a sewing machine for my husband Good trade, huh!

46Q: The first dreams under a new quilt come true Might I suggest oysters for dinner beforehand?